Delaware County Friends of the Trail

DCFT is a grass-roots, all volunteer nonprofit organization dedicated to the health and safety of the citizens of Delaware County through promotion, planning and building of a multi-use trail for recreation and transportation.

DCFT seeks assistance, vision and dedication of Delaware County residents to keep the care and creation of dedicated trails in step with the county's unprecedented growth.

You can be a valuable part of the group. Volunteers are always needed to help with trail clearing and cleanup, as well with other fun events such as the Community Ties Bike Tour.

2009 Community Ties Ride – Enjoy!

Those who participate in the Community Ties ride this year will experience well-supported rides of 31, 62 or 100 miles that wind their way through beautiful countryside and visit some of Delaware county's towns, villages and communities.

You will enjoy well-marked roads and trails, route maps, multiple snack stops with delicious home-baked cookies and a post-event lunch. We'll also have a manned SAG vehicle on the route should you need assistance.

The 8-mile ride is a favorite of families with young children. The route primarily stays on a 4-mile portion of paved DCFT trail featuring a shady tunnel of trees that encourages an enjoyable, relaxing Saturday excursion.

The Community Ties Ride is DCFT's annual fund raiser to help generate funds to establish a multi-purpose trail through Delaware County and connect with the statewide Ohio to Erie Trail. One hundred percent of rider registration receipts will go directly to trail building efforts.

New this year, your registration will also include a free one-year membership in DCFT so you can follow the trail development activities and see how your participation is helping establish the trail in our community.

Thanks to you, it's working!
