Delaware County Friends of the Trail

DCFT (Delaware County Friends of the Trail) is a grass-roots, all volunteer nonprofit organization dedicated to the health and safety of the citizens of Delaware County through promotion, planning and building of a multi-use trail for recreation and transportation. DCFT seeks assistance, vision and dedication of Delaware County residents to keep the care and creation of multi-use trails in step with the county's unprecedented growth.

You can be a valuable part of the group. Volunteers are always needed to help with trail clearing and cleanup, as well with other fun events such as the Community Ties Bike Tour. Think you might be interested in volunteering? Visit our website to learn more.

Come join us for the Community Ties Bike Ride!

Participate in the Community Ties ride and experience well-supported routes of 31, 62 or 100 miles that wind their way through the beautiful countryside and communities of Delaware County.

The ride offers well-marked roads and trails, route maps, multiple snack stops with homemade cookies, and a delicious, locally grown and catered lunch! A manned SAG vehicle will be on the route should you need assistance. The 8-mile ride is a favorite of families with young children. The route primarily stays on a 4-mile portion of paved DCFT trail featuring a shady tunnel of trees that encourages an enjoyable, relaxing Saturday excursion.

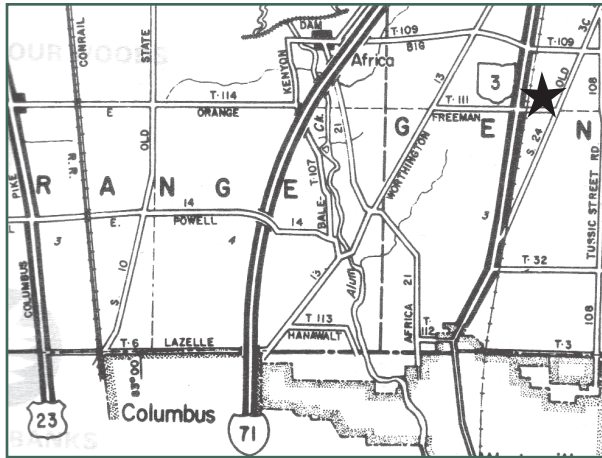

Community Ties is DCFT's annual fund raiser which generates funds to establish a multipurpose trail through Delaware County and connect with the statewide Ohio to Erie Trail. One hundred percent of rider registration receipts go directly to trail building efforts. Your registration will also include a free one-year membership in DCFT so you can follow trail development activities and see how your participation is helping to establish trails in our community.

Thanks to you, it's working!
